

MEDIA RELEASE

For release Friday 29th May 2009

SALA Festival Registrations extended until 15th June

You must be registered in this year's festival to be eligible for the following Awards.

THE ADVERTISER BUSINESS SA CONTEMPORARY ART PRIZE AWARD For the most outstanding artwork in any medium for 2009

Winner shall receive $5,000 cash

Nominations Close 22nd June

- The names of the finalists will be published in the Advertiser on Saturday 25 July
- The final 10 works will be exhibited in the Keith Murdoch Building from 7-23 August 2009 as part of the SALA Festival

OTHER AWARDS CLOSING 15th July

- Core Energy Group Sculpture Award for an outstanding Sculpture piece- $1000 cash prize
- SA Life Emerging Artist Award- $500 cash prize
- Rip It Up Young Artist Award- $500 cash prize
- Gosia Schild Award for Best New Work in the Moving Image - $500 cash prize
- The Centre for Creative Photography Developing Artist Award- Prize consists of photography course voucher worth $500
- The Centre for Creative Photography Latent Image Award- Prize consists of in kind assistance to the value of $500
- Atkins Technicolour Photographic Award- Prize consists of an edition of three A1 Giclee Archival Fine Art Prints
- JamFactory Contemporary Craft and Design Award- Prize consists of an exhibition in the 'Studio Works' retail gallery

For more information visit 'SALA Awards' on the SALA website www.salafestival.com
Or contact the SALA Office on 8218 8450

Ends
Media Contacts:
Penny McAuley – SALA Festival General Manager
(08) 8218 8451
penny@salafestival.com
LOVE ART?